A BIBLE FOR EVERY BELIEVER!
It is illegal to own, print, import, or distribute Farsi Bibles in Iran. A Bible smuggler was killed while bringing God’s Word into the country, and Christians have been imprisoned there for printing and distributing Bibles. Will you help meet this need?

Disaster Relief volunteers are missionaries who share the love and hope of Jesus bringing health, hope, and healing to those in crisis because it’s not “if” another storm will come... it’s when.
(1 Peter 4:10-11)

Personnel Committee Meeting

Wednesday, June 18th
at 6:00pm
Small Conference Room

Trent's Two Cents:

This past Sunday was Pentecost Sunday on the liturgical calendar. Pentecost, also called the Feast of Weeks, is one of the three major Jewish feasts. The term “pentecost” is derived from the Greek word meaning “fifty”. It celebrates the end of the grain harvest, 50 days after Passover. Acts 2 tells us that the Holy Spirit indwelt believers in Jerusalem on the Day of Pentecost. In the power of the Spirit, Peter began to share the gospel to all the people gathered there. Peter linked the gift of the Holy Spirit with the life, death, resurrection, and ascension of Jesus. That day 3,000 people responded in repentance and faith and received the gift of the Holy Spirit.

Starting Sunday evening, June 22nd, I will be preaching a sermon series on the Holy Spirit. We cannot live the Christian life apart from the work of the Holy Spirit. The Holy Spirit convicts us of sin, enables us to understand and interpret God’s Word, guides us in Truth, empowers us to proclaim, gives us spiritual gifts, transforms our lives to become more like Christ, and certifies us as children of God. Please pray for me as I prepare these sermons and pray for the Spirit to move in a mighty way as we seek to understand how He works in our daily lives.

Your Pastor,
Trent (trent@washingtonbaptist.org)

In considering your role in this ministry, bear in mind each child receives only one shoebox in his/her lifetime...knowing this fact, will you put your heart into every shoebox you pack?

PRAYER FOCUS-

West Virginia: Jason Thomas planted and is pastoring The Church at Morgantown in Morgantown, West Virginia. His sending church is Cross Lanes Baptist Church in Cross Lanes, West Virginia. "Recently, we completed training for CarePortal, a system for churches to meet the needs of families in their city. When a worker visits a home and sees a family who needs a baby bed, diapers, or some other necessity, they can enter the need in CarePortal online, and churches that have completed the training can receive the notification. The need comes straight to the church, and the church will deliver the item(s) to the family. We are the first county in our state to be involved with CarePortal, and there are only two churches in our city involved thus far. We also recently partnered with Compass, a pregnancy resource center in our city. Pray these opportunities would make Jesus known in Morgantown." ### Listening & Following (Acts 10)

Acts 10 is truly one of the most pivotal chapters in the history of the young Church and the Bible. It contains the stories of two men - the Apostle Peter and the Centurion Cornelius - one who is well-known and the other relatively unknown, and yet through God's work in their lives our lives have been transformed forever. The Church was entirely Jewish at this point, and we see in this chapter that Peter is still holding to many Jewish customs. While he is ministering in Israel, we see that God has put His hand on the life of Cornelius - he comes to faith, he lives out his faith in prayer and in deed, and he leads his family to faith in God as well. For a Gentile to be a part of the family of God seemed impossible to those in the Church, but what God was doing in the life of Cornelius was using him to prepare Peter's heart for the message God would bring to him. When God then puts all the animals before Peter in a vision and tells him to eat, Peter does what any good Jew would do and refuses citing the Old Testament that God then repeals, saying “What God has made clean, do not call common (v. 15).” The point, here, is not the change to the Law, but instead a focus on grace in that God has made the focus on His grace and salvation. Peter recognizes this when, as he goes through this vision, he is approached by Cornelius's men to come with them and follows them to the centurion where he meets him and his family and understands the vision fully: “God has shown me that I should not call any person common or unclean... Truly I understand that God shows no partiality, but in every nation anyone who fears him and does what is right is acceptable to him (v. 28b, 34-35).” As this happens, the Holy Spirit falls on Cornelius and his family which starts the inclusion of Gentiles into the church for the rest of the book of Acts as well as the Bible. The point is this, God worked in the life of Cornelius and used his life to work in the life of Peter and both of their lives have to be used to work in our lives - Gentiles - being a part of the church. None of that would have been possible if both men had not listened and followed what God was telling them & where He was leading them. The question for us today is this: are we looking for His work and listening for His Word in our lives?

In service of Christ,
Braxton Kubasko
(Braxton@washingtonbaptist.org)
