Trent's Two Cents:
The month of June has 5 Sundays in it, that means this Sunday, June 29th, is Reunion Sunday. We will not have the 8:30 service this Sunday morning. Sunday School will be at 9:45am and we will have one morning worship service at 10:45am so we can all join together for worship. This service will include baptism and the Lord's Supper. We have two that are planning on being baptized Sunday morning! I enjoy Reunion Sunday because we observe the two ordinances of the church in the same service as one body. This will be a meaningful time to reflect on what Jesus Christ did for us through His death, burial, and resurrection. Sunday evening we will have our regular worship service at 6:00pm as I continue our study on the Holy Spirit. I hope you will be able to join us for both of these services on June 30th.

Your Pastor,
Trent

Back-to-School Sales
It is hard to believe, but these important sales begin as early as June 19th this year.

Collecting school supplies at great prices is one way we are able to fill hundreds of shoeboxes and reach hundreds of children! Please shop at Staples, Walmart, Target or Amazon for the best prices.

Most wanted items: composition books, crayons, and markers
In considering your role in this ministry, bear in mind each child receives only one shoebox in his/her lifetime...knowing this fact, will you put your heart into every shoebox you pack?

Each of you should give what you have decided in your heart to give, not reluctantly or under compulsion, for God loves a cheerful giver. (2 Corinthians 9:7)

Babylon & Beyond: The Sovereignty of God in the Book of Daniel

The Book of Daniel continues to be one of the most applicable books of the Old Testament even to this day, as its message of hope in a difficult world is relatable for us in our time. The story of Daniel begins where the historical books of the Bible end - with the conquering of the southern kingdom of Judah, the exile of God's people, and ultimately the destruction of Jerusalem. In its characters - Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah - we get a picture of what the lives of the exiles were like as they went into a new land with new cultures and pressures. These young men are given roles in the king's court, placing them under immense cultural and spiritual pressure. Yet, in spite of these things, we see that God time and time again gives them success and shows Himself to be sovereign against not only Babylon but the successive empires and kings that follow. Many readers find this book challenging because of its vivid prophetic visions—a type of writing known as apocalyptic literature. The word 'apocalypse' simply means 'to unveil' or 'to reveal.' In Daniel's case, these visions pull back the curtain on God's plans for the future and the coming of the Messiah. In fact, this book is second only to the book of Isaiah in terms of the sheer volume of what is revealed about the coming Messiah. But the book of Daniel also shows us that the people of God were doing what God instructed them to through the prophet Jeremiah while they waited - "Build houses and live in them; plant gardens and eat their produce. But seek the welfare of the city where I have sent you into exile, and pray to the Lord on its behalf, for in its welfare you will find your welfare (Jeremiah 29:5, 7)." God was telling His people that their Savior is coming and that until He comes we should build the kingdom of God right where we are. That is a message that we can still live out today. So over the coming weeks, I want us to dive into this book together and its implications for us as God's people. We will see not only what God has done in the lives of Daniel and others, but what He wants to do in your life and in our church. We will get direction from God's sovereignty over history here and use it to seek His direction today. Ultimately, we will, like Daniel, all have opportunities to stand for God, but the question is will we stand for Him or crumble to the pressure and allure of the world? A song I learned as a child says it well: Dare to be a Daniel, dare to stand alone, dare to have a purpose firm, dare to make it known.

In service of Christ,
Braxton Kubasko
